

Change Location

If your site is part of a network of facilities, you may have roles and responsibilities on one or more sites.

Changing to another site in your system can be done from any page within PolicyStat.

Hover your cursor over Change Location in the top left corner. A menu will display. Click the name of the desired location to change sites.

Note that you can have different levels of permissions on each site, so the features you have access to may change.